

Disability Support

KEW

- Ready to have fun?
- Want to join a dynamic team?
- Looking for rewarding volunteer work?

Opportunities exist at St Paul's College in KEW supporting students with varied disabilities to access a diverse program of education and enjoyment.

Positions are available for half to one day per week, Monday - Friday between 8.30am-3.00 pm.

Volunteer roles are varied and interesting and can include involvement in a swimming/hydrotherapy program, assisting with art or music programs, horse riding, accompanying on outings, assisting with electives including horticulture, bike education and personal grooming.

You will be part of a great group, supported by staff in all activities. So become involved, develop your skills and make a difference!
