KEW

- Looking for a rewarding volunteer position?
- Like to read?
- Want to be part of something great?

Villa Maria provides a range of services for adults with physical and intellectual disabilities.

Opportunities exist at our day program at Gateway Kew supporting adults with intellectual and/or physical disabilities.

You will be working alongside a team of people, while our clients participate in a range of activities that they enjoy doing, such as being read stories.

We are looking for someone who is friendly, reliable, open minded, who would like to get to know people and make new friends. If this is you, you could become one of the many who fall in love with this highly rewarding work.

Positions are available anytime between 10am – 3pm Monday to Friday.

Volunteer roles in this field are varied and interesting and can also include involvement in other activities such as gardening, assisting with art or music programs, accompanying on outings and much more, if you so desire. You are welcome to bring your creative talents, or simply help with the planned activities.

You will be part of an amazing team, supported by staff in all activities.
